Reading Series Two and Three Foundational Skills and Close Reading Teacher's Guides are currently under development and have an anticipated release date of 2018-2019. The guides will be released as completed. Because we understand that budgeting and grant writing for materials in advance of purchase is often necessary, we have provided pricing for the teacher's guides and classroom sets (which include the guides) above. We thank you for your patience with this revision and development project and believe you will find the results to be worth the wait. For questions, please email info@flyleafpublishing.com.*

For teachers who decide to pre-order the guides, a copy of the first-edition guides will be sent ahead at no additional charge.
